> Inquisitive, Bold, Lively Descended from large sled dog breeds, the foxy-faced dog, nicknamed "the little dog who thinks he can," is compact, active, and capable of competing in agility and obedience or simply being a family friend.

Why a Pomeranian?

Temperament

The Pomeranian is a proud, lively little dog. It is intelligent, eager to learn, very loyal to its handler and

Big Personality

Despite their small stature, they are famous for thinking they can take on big dogs with their little bark

Indoor Dog

Poms can be indoor dogs as long as they get short walks and indoor exercise.

Family Friendly

Pomeranians are perfect for family life, as long as any children are old enough not to roughhouse too much.
